RACV VETERAN CAR CLUB ANNUAL RALLY BALLARAT

Friday 10 - Sunday 12 November 2017

Entries close Friday 20 October 2017

Entry Form

The RACV Veteran Car Club Annual Rally 2017 will be based at the Bell Tower Inn in Ballarat. This property, located on the western side of Ballarat, has a long history with our club but was also chosen to minimise city/suburban traffic for our veteran cars. Although the rally will commence on the Friday morning, we have arranged an informal "get-together" at Lazy Moe's on the Thursday evening. This venue is adjacent to the Bell Tower. For those staying at the Bell Tower you can "charge-back" to your accommodation account.

Friday: Departing at 9.30am we will head clear of the CBD, across the M8 and traverse undulating semi-rural terrain to the manicured gardens of historic Kirk's Reservoir for morning tea. We then continue on through Springbank, Gordon and the undulating hills around Millbrook to the quirky Wallace Hotel for lunch. From there, we head back to our accommodation to prepare for the rally highlight – Sovereign Hill – "Blood on the Southern Cross." Buses will pick us up from the Bell Tower and from the Big 4 Windmill Caravan Park.

Saturday: Our touring day. 145 kilometres round trip with a stop at the Lake Goldsmith Steam Preservation Society for morning tea. Several sheds will be available for viewing. Then on to the National Trust property, Mooramong Homestead, for lunch. The Rally Dinner will be held at the Ballarat Golf Club about 300 metres from the Bell Tower.

Sunday: The final day will start with a casual drive to Lake Learmonth for morning tea at the Bowling Club. For those interested, a non-competitive [yeah, right] game of barefoot bowls will be on offer. The rally will end following a scenic drive around the lake and 18 km to lunch in the Flying Horse bistro at the Ballarat Trotting Club.

To simplify event entry and payments we have combined the morning tea and lunch charges.
